

INDIANA STATEWIDE INDEPENDENT LIVING COUNCIL

What is the INSILC?

INSILC Purpose:

Section 701 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 promotes a philosophy of independent living, including a philosophy of consumer control, peer support, self-help, self-determination, equal access, and individual and system advocacy, in order to maximize the leadership, empowerment, independence, and productivity of individuals with disabilities, and the integration and full inclusion of individuals with disabilities into the mainstream of American society.

Driven by this purpose - The vision, mission, and values of INSILC were developed with input from a diverse group of individuals including INSILC Council Members, its staff, Hoosiers with disabilities and agencies working with individuals with disabilities.

INSILC Vision:

To be a consumer-controlled council that is effective in leading a statewide independent living movement resulting in people with disabilities living without barriers, fully integrated in society.

INSILC Mission:

To empower our peers with disabilities to lead and control their own lives.

INSILC Values:

INSILC is committed to a culture that consists of the following core values:

- ❖ Independence
- ❖ Equality
- ❖ Integration
- ❖ Choice
- ❖ Freedom
- ❖ Control
- ❖ Integrity
